PRIVACY STATEMENT

This privacy statement contains details about which of your personal data RIS Rubber N.V. processes and for which purposes that is done. It also contains information on your privacy rights and how you can exercise them. The information in this privacy statement applies exclusively to RIS Rubber N.V. and its website https://www.risrubber.com and not to third-party websites that may be accessed via links on this website.

RIS Rubber N.V. respects the privacy of people whose personal data it processes, including all visitors to its website https://www.risrubber.com. RIS Rubber N.V. processes personal data in accordance with the applicable privacy regulations.

PERSONAL DATA

In connection with the provision of services, RIS Rubber N.V. processes personal data within the meaning of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Personal data is any data that can provide information about an identified or identifiable natural person. Processing refers to any activity involving personal data, such as storing, sharing, deleting and protecting it. Data subject means any natural person to whom personal data relates.

SOURCE OF PERSONAL DATA

Personal data may have been actively provided by you to RIS Rubber N.V., such as your name and contact details. Your online devices automatically provide our computers with some technical data and personal data when you visit the website, such as the IP address you use, the operating system, the Internet browser used, or the last Internet page you visited. Under no circumstances are you obliged to provide your personal data. The decision not to provide personal data may well mean that RIS Rubber N.V. cannot contact you, or enter into an Agreement with you.

CONTROLLER

Generally speaking, RIS Rubber N.V. is what is called the data controller within the meaning of the GDPR. This means that RIS Rubber N.V. decides which personal data to process, for what purpose and in what way. RIS Rubber N.V. is responsible for ensuring that your personal data is processed in accordance with the GDPR and in a proper and careful manner.

PROCESSING CATEGORIES & PURPOSES

RIS Rubber N.V. uses your name, address, telephone number and e-mail address to contact you. In addition, RIS Rubber N.V. uses all (financial and personal) data made available to it, or provided by you, or required by law, for the purpose of its services, or to inform you about new products and/or offers from RIS Rubber N.V. If you apply for a job at RIS Rubber N.V., the personal data as provided, for example, along with your CV is processed to assess your application.

PROCESSING PRINCIPLES

RIS Rubber N.V. must be able to base the use of your personal data on the GDPR. In accordance with this European regulation, RIS Rubber N.V. processes personal data on the basis of the engagement agreement, on the basis of a legal obligation, or on the basis of your obtained consent, on the basis of defending one of its rights or a legitimate (business) interest.

RETENTION PERIODS

RIS Rubber N.V. does not retain personal data for longer than necessary for the purpose for which relevant personal data is processed. Insofar as required by (tax) law, personal data is kept for 7 years. The personal data of job applicants is kept for up to 1 month after the end of the application procedure and, with the applicant's consent, for no more than 1 year after the application procedure has ended.

PERSONAL DATA SECURITY

In accordance with the GDPR, RIS Rubber N.V. has taken the appropriate technical and organisational measures to prevent the loss of personal data or unlawful processing. These measures ensure that an appropriate level of security is applied which takes account of the risks of the processing and the nature of the personal data to be protected.

PERSONAL DATA ISSUANCE

RIS Rubber N.V. will not issue the personal data it has obtained from you or processed to third parties, unless this is necessary in order to defend a right, or if there is a legal obligation to do so. Your personal data will not be processed outside the EEA without the required additional appropriate safeguards.

DATA LEAKS

In accordance with the GDPR, RIS Rubber N.V. will 'immediately notify the Dutch Data Protection Authority (Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens) of any security breach (data breach) detected by RIS Rubber N.V. itself, or reported to RIS Rubber N.V., which results in the significant chance of serious detrimental consequences, or which has serious detrimental consequences for the protection of personal data'. Insofar as the identified data breach, in RIS Rubber N.V.'s opinion, is likely to pose a high risk to the rights and freedoms of the data subject, RIS Rubber N.V. will inform the data subject of the breach which affects their personal data. RIS Rubber N.V. will, in all cases, keep internal records of any such security breaches.

USE OF GOOGLE ANALYTICS ON THE WEBSITE

The website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc. ('Google'). Google Analytics uses 'cookies' (text files placed on your computer) to help the website analyse how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) is transmitted to Google and stored by it on servers in the United States. Google uses this information to track how you use the website, compile reports on website activity for website operators and provide other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may provide this information to third parties if legally required to do so, or insofar as these third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not combine your IP address with other data kept by Google. You can refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser. We would like to point out, however, that if you do so, you may not be able to use all this website's features. If you do not want your website traffic to be measured by Google Analytics, you can easily download a tool here that blocks Google Analytics. Personal data is processed when you use certain cookies. These are so-called tracking or marketing cookies. You can give permission on the website to these cookies being used for the purposes described above.

YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS

The GDPR stipulates that you have various privacy rights. You have the right to access your personal data. If you would like to know which personal data RIS Rubber N.V. processes about you, you can submit a request for access in Writing or by email.

You have the right to rectification or erasure of your personal data. If it appears that your data is incorrect, incomplete or irrelevant, you can submit a request for your data to be rectified, erased or supplemented. You have the right to receive personal data provided by you to RIS Rubber N.V. – insofar as possible – in a machine-readable form and have it transferred to another organisation.
You have the right to object to any processing of your personal data which takes place on the grounds of a legitimate interest of RIS Rubber N.V. If your objection is justified, the processing relating to you will be terminated. If RIS Rubber N.V. has based the processing of your personal data on your consent, you will always have the right to withdraw your consent, after which RIS Rubber N.V. will terminate the processing in question.
The withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of the processing prior to the withdrawal.

WEBSITE CONTACT FORM

You can enter certain personal data and provide it to us on our website. Sending it allows us to process this data. We process this data exclusively to contact you, provide you with information and/or make you an offer. We will not share this data with third parties, nor sell it, without your consent.

COMPLAINTS

If you believe that RIS Rubber N.V. is not processing your personal data in accordance with the applicable privacy regulations, please contact the Privacy Officer referred to in this statement. You also have the right to contact the Dutch Data Protection Authority.
